DETAILED ACTION

1. A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on November 15, 2004 has been entered.

Claims 1-3 and 5 are currently pending.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

3. Claims 1-3 and 5, as understood, are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Tokumaru et al. (U.S. Patent 5,611,015).

Regarding claims 1-3 and 5, Tokumaru et al. disclose (see Figs. 2-4) a method of estimating an amount of angular disagreement of planes of polarization between two polarization-maintaining optical fibers in which at least one of the fibers has a pair of stress applying sections (2c), comprising the steps of: irradiating a light (3) on the lateral side of the fibers during or after a connection of the fibers; and estimating the amount of angular disagreement of the plane of polarization of the fiber having the stress applying sections from a function of positions (see Fig. 12) and heights (see Fig. 12) of two peaks of brightness (2p, 3p) corresponding to the stress applying functions of a transmitted light produced by irradiating the light. A function of the heights of the peaks is inherently taken into account in the estimation. That is, by definition, a "peak" is a part of a signal or curve that is higher than other parts of the signal or curve. Since peaks are identified or detected, heights would have to be examined and the estimation is "a function" of heights. Tokumaru et al. also disclose fusing the fibers.

Response to Arguments

4. Applicant's arguments filed November 15, 2004 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

Applicant asserts that the prior art only calculates the values corresponding to the relative positions of the peaks and fails estimate the value using the heights of the peaks. Examiner disagrees. The claims simply state that the value is estimated based on "a function of positions and heights" of the peaks. Since a peak is the highest portion of a signal, and peaks are detected, height is taken into consideration. As such, the prior art does estimate the value based on a function of positions and heights as claimed.

Thus, as set forth above, this rejection is proper.
